

But Not For Me

A Verse

Old man sunshine listen you      Never tell me dreams come true

Just try it      Umm... and I start a riot

Beatrice Fairfax don't you dare      Ever tell me she will care I am cer-tain      It's the fin-al      cur-tain      I ne-ver want to hear from any cheer-ful Polly - an-na's tell you fate, sup-plies a mate, It's all ba-na-nas      She's knock-ing on your door      but not for me songs of love      but not for me      A

She'll plan a two by four but not for me      I know that luck - y stars a - bove but not for me love's a game      I'm puzzled just the same With love to lead the way      I've found more clouds of gray

F7                      Fm7                      B7                      Bb7
 Was I the moth or flame? I'm all at sea It.
 A - ny Russ - ian play could guar - an - tee I was a

F9                      Bb9                      Bb7                      Eb all began so well but what an end This is the fool to fall get that way High-time a fell - er needs a friend And every ho A - las and al - so Luck - a - day

Ab                      Abm6                      Eb                      C7 hap - py plot Ends with the marriage knot At - though I can't dis - miss the mem' - ry of her kiss (TACIT)

Fm7                      Bb7                      Eb
 And there's no knot for me They're writ - ing

Fm7                      Bb7                      Gm7                      C7 I guess she's not for I guess she's not for,

Fm7                      Bb7                      Eb                      Eb7/G                      Ab                      A0
 I guess she's not for me.

Eb                      Fm7                      F#0                      Eb                      Eb (Musical notation continues)

(Empty musical staves)